

PsychSim 5: EXPRESSING EMOTION

Name: _____ Section: _____

Date: _____

In this activity you will learn about the role of facial expressions in the nonverbal communication of emotion.

Primary Affects

- What emotions are generally considered primary affects? How do they relate to facial expressions?

The Facial Code

- Using the table below, describe the characteristic positions of the eyebrows, eyes, and mouth for each of the six primary affects.

	Eyebrows	Eyes	Mouth
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

- How does the expression of disgust differ from the other primary affects?

Emotional Blends

- What are emotional blends? How do people generally express them?

Masking Emotion

- How are people able to mask emotions?